"Cambridge English for Job-Hunting is for upper-intermediate to advanced level (B2-C1) learners of English who need to use English during the job application process. The course can be used in the classroom or for self-study. Ideal for working professionals those new to the world of employment, the course develops the specialist English language knowledge and communication skills that job-seekers need to apply for and secure jobs. Cambridge English for Job-Hunting comprises six standalone units covering core areas such as preparing a CV, writing a cover letter, and answering interview questions. By featuring authentic materials such as CVs and letters, learners are given practical experience in preparing vital documentation. The course also features a special focus on the interview scenario, including extracts from interviews on the Audio CD. As well as familiarising learners with commonly asked interview questions, the course also develops more advanced interviewing techniques such as answering difficult questions and selling yourself effectively. In addition the course offers valuable advice to help build applicants' confidence. "

Bridging the fields of conservation, art history, and museum curating, this volume contains the principal papers from an international symposium titled "Historical Painting Techniques, Materials, and Studio Practice" at the University of Leiden in Amsterdam, Netherlands, from June 26 to 29, 1995. The symposium—designed for art historians, conservators, conservation scientists, and museum curators worldwide—was organized by the Department of Art History at the University of Leiden and the Art History Department of the Central Research Laboratory for Objects of Art and Science in Amsterdam. Twenty-five contributors representing museums and conservation institutions throughout the world provide recent research on historical painting techniques, including wall painting and polychrome sculpture. Topics cover the latest art historical research and scientific analyses of original techniques and materials, as well as historical sources, such as medieval treatises and descriptions of painting techniques in historical literature. Chapters include the painting methods of Rembrandt and Vermeer, Dutch 17th-century landscape painting, wall paintings in English churches, Chinese paintings on paper and canvas, and Tibetan thangka. Color plates and black-and-white photographs illustrate works from the Middle Ages to the 20th century.

Le dictionnaire du Christianisme s'évertue à recenser et définir tous les termes chrétiens de la langue française, avec leurs différents sens ou usages et ce, dans tous les domaines - critique biblique, histoire, théologie - et dans toutes les branches du christianisme - catholiques, orthodoxes, protestants, anglicans, évangéliques, pentecôtistes. C'est aussi un dictionnaire bilingue français-anglais et anglais-français de toute la terminologie chrétienne. Ce que nous propose Gabriel Martin R c'est un futur livre de référence. Un ouvrage à posséder si vous voulez découvrir quels adjectifs sont dérivés de mots bibliques, si vous voulez connaître leur origine. A posséder si vous voulez prendre conscience du véritable sens de l'amour, de la sagesse, de l'adoration. Etymologie, époque, contexte, synonymes, antonymes et corrélats, chaque entrée bénéficie d'un travail de recherche impressionnant qui vous permettra de remarquer l'importance parfois insoupçonnée de la religion chrétienne dans la langue française.
