Apocalyptic Cartography Bayard Culture

This volume brings together a range of papers on buildings that have been categorised as ‘villas’, mainly in Roman Britain, from the Isle of Wight to Shropshire. It comprises the first such survey for almost half a century.

Dans l'univers sans fin des cartes, les cartes d'îles possèdent un charme tout particulier. Les deux mondes, des cartes et des îles, s'y croisent, laissant émerger des formes riches et colorées. Cinq artistes, collectionneurs, chercheurs ont formé le collectif Stevenson pour en explorer et en célébrer les beautés, les incongruités, les fantaisies autant que la précision et la finesse. De la mise en commun de leurs trésors cartographiques chinés, dénichés, inhumés et patiemment amassés, est né Mappa insulae. Les îles s'y montrent parfois dans leur isolement absolu, cerclées d'une épaisseur bleue qui les sépare du reste du monde ; parfois en archipel, éparpillées "comme autant de pépins crachés dans l'eau" ; parfois encore simplement suggérées, récifs tapis sous des noms calligraphiés sur les flots. De carte en carte, d'île en île, de pensées en poèmes, nous voilà embarqués pour une traversée érudite et insolite.

«Caro Jérôme, il nostro primo incontro, attraverso il mirino del mio fucile, è stato alquanto sanguinoso. Cinque anni di attesa e di preparazione per quell'unico momento. Poi mi sono avvicinata a te al solo scopo di condurti sulla mia isola, l'Insula Oya. Mio padre era molto ansioso di conoscerti e aveva bisogno di te. Tu avevi inconsciamente in mano la chiave di un mistero che era stato protetto per migliaia di anni dalla nostra confraternita. Gli imprevisti e gli ostacoli sul nostro cammino hanno rivelato il vero volto di mio padre. È giusto continuare a seguirlo sulla sua strada? La vita ci propone delle scelte. Tocca a noi fare quelle giuste. Marie, tua sorella che pensa a te.» Una giovane donna affascinata da un ideale di pace e benessere per tutta l'umanità, un trentenne ignaro del suo ruolo cruciale, un padre assetato di potere e il vecchio maestro di una confraternita che ha come scopo la protezione di un mistero. Ecco gli ingredienti di questo thriller mozzafiato, che vi accompagneranno in un viaggio appassionante da Strasburgo all'isola di Yeu.

This volume represents the third edition of a work cycle that started in 2006 for my PhD thesis. The thesis was presented in 2010 (first edition, Gattiglia 2010), partially published as a summary monograph in 2011 (second edition, Gattiglia 2011) or in articles (Gattiglia 2012, Gattiglia 2012a, Gattiglia 2011a), and now (third edition) takes the form of a more comprehensive publication in the light of new data. Over the past two years, the work study on Pisa, not only relating to the Middle Ages, continued within the MAPPA (Metodologie Applicate alla Predittività del Potenziale - Methodologies Applied to Archaeological Potential Predictivity) project, allowing a widespread collection of data thanks to which it was possible to explain more fully the hydro-geological, geomorphological and topographic context and to check (and in many cases change) part of the assumptions

In Apocalyptic Cartography, Chet Van Duzer and Ilya Dines analyse an unstudied fifteenth-century German manuscript that contains a rich collection of strikingly original world maps. These include early thematic maps and maps illustrating the events of the Apocalypse.

Dans ce livre, l'auteur s'intéresse à la façon dont l'imagination travaille l'activité cartographique non seulement à ses débuts mais aujourd'hui encore où, grâce à des instruments perfectionnés, les cartes ont acquis un statut scientifique indéniable. C'est dans l'irréductible écart entre les cartes et le monde que s'exerce l'imaginaire de ceux qui les fabriquent comme de ceux qui les consultent. Si bien que les Atlas, aussi exhaustifs soient-ils, demeurent pour nous des machines à rêver et ne laissent personne indifférent. Et moins que quiconque les voyageurs et les artistes qui nous ont souvent révélé certaines dimensions inaperçues des cartes.
